

Blossom House School

RECRUITMENT OF EX-OFFENDERS POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Whole School

Reviewed September 2023 Zelah Hodges

Next review due September 2024

1. Purpose and Scope

1.1. The aim of this policy is to state Blossom House School's approach towards employing people who have criminal convictions.

We are committed to equality of opportunity for all job applicants and aim to select people for employment on the basis of their individual skills, abilities, experience, knowledge and, where appropriate, qualifications and training.

However, Blossom House School is an exempt employer as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions Order 1975) and as such, we have a lawful basis for requesting an enhanced DBS disclosure certificate for all employees. In addition, Blossom House School is a regulated activity provider and for most posts, we have a statutory duty to check that the individual is not barred from regulated work with children and / or adults.

1.2. The safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults is of paramount importance to us and the scrutiny of any unspent cautions or convictions and those which would not be protected under the Ministry of Justice filtering rules is an essential and non-negotiable part of the pre-employment checking process.

1.3. We will consider ex-offenders for employment on their individual merits. The School's approach towards employing ex-offenders differs depending on whether the job is or is not exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Jobs covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

1.4. We will not automatically refuse to employ a particular individual just because they have a previous criminal conviction.

1.5. During the recruitment process, the School will ask shortlisted job applicants to disclose any unspent cautions or convictions but will not ask job applicants questions about criminal history that would be filtered or protected, nor expect them to disclose any protected convictions. The successful applicant will be asked to apply for an enhanced DBS certificate, with a Children's barred list check and / or an Adult's barred list check if undertaking regulated activity.

1.6. If an applicant has a caution or conviction that is unspent and if the nature of the offence is relevant to their suitability for the job for which they have applied, we will review the individual circumstances of the case having sought a DBS certificate and by using a Positive DBS Disclosure Risk Assessment Form may, at the School's discretion, decline to select the individual for employment.

Jobs that are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

1.7. The vast majority of the roles we are seeking to recruit are covered by Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions Order 1975) (Amendment England and Wales Order 2020) (roles in regulated positions and in Further Education provision). In these cases, Blossom House School will require shortlisted applicants to disclose all unspent convictions or bind overs in addition to any criminal history that would not be filtered. Even in these circumstances, however, we will not refuse to employ a particular individual unless the nature of the conviction has some relevance to the job for which the individual has applied. Again, the individual circumstances of the case will be reviewed by seeking a DBS certificate with a Children's barred list check and / or an Adult's barred list check if undertaking regulated activity and completing a Positive DBS Disclosure Risk Assessment Form.

1.8. As a result of amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act in 2013 and 2020, cautions and convictions that meet specified criteria should not be disclosed by applicants and must not be taken into account by potential employers. We encourage all applicants to use the flowchart provided by Nacro (Appendix A) and to seek legal or impartial advice before completing their self-disclosure.

1.9. Blossom House School will, once we have selected the person to whom we wish to offer employment, make a joint application to the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) for an enhanced certificate (with the relevant DBS barred list(s) check if the post is in regulated activity). Where the individual is a member of the DBS update service in the relevant workforce and at the required level, the School will, with the individual's permission, carry out a status check on any current certificate.

1.10. Blossom House School is committed to ensuring that all information provided about an individual's criminal convictions, including any information released in disclosures, is used fairly and stored and handled appropriately and in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018. Data held on file about an individual's criminal convictions will be held only as long as it is required for employment and / or safeguarding purposes and will not be disclosed to any unauthorised person.

2. The Process

- As a Regulated Activity provider (RAP) almost all paid employees at Blossom House School are in regulated activity and therefore subject to an enhanced DBS certificate with check(s) of the relevant DBS barred list(s).
- In relation to volunteers an enhanced DBS certificate with a barred list check will be undertaken if the volunteer engages in regulated activity. The School will undertake a volunteer risk assessment when deciding whether to seek an enhanced DBS check for any volunteer not engaged in regulated activity. (Except for those simply assisting with day-time school trips).
- For those positions where an enhanced DBS check is required, the application form and application pack will contain a statement that an enhanced DBS certificate (with barred list check(s) where relevant) will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position.
- All shortlisted applicants are required to complete a criminal record self-disclosure form to be returned no less than 1 day prior to the interview date. This information is to be sent to the HR team. Failure to return the self-disclosure form will result in the offer of interview being withdrawn. We guarantee that the self-disclosure information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment and selection process.
- The criminal record self-disclosure form will include information for shortlisted applicants on the importance of seeking legal advice and the contact details of organisations that can provide impartial advice.
- We ensure that all those who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance on the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (exceptions order 1975) (as amended 2013 & 2020) and know how to access advice and support from HR, and relevant registered bodies.
- At interview, or in a separate discussion, the recruitment selection panel will ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or related concerns that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that would not be filtered could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.
- All potential employees are guided to the Revised Code of Practice for Disclosure and Barring Service Registered Persons and a copy will be made available on request.

- We undertake to discuss any relevant matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment. This discussion and completion of the Positive DBS Disclosure Risk Assessment Form will be undertaken by the Principal.
- If the DBS check reveals any matching information against the DBS barred list(s) or any criminal conviction which precludes them from working with children and / or adults the applicant is deemed non-appointable. In this circumstance, we would notify the Local Authority Designated Officer.
